

SPEAKER BIO:

Ariana Newcomer specializes in healing the soul's voice to joyfully express its divine purpose. She teaches women coaches, consultants and change agents to speak with power and confidence from their fully aligned, authentic selves, so they can be truly heard and understood, get their message across, and create highly successful, deeply fulfilling businesses that change the world.

Called “The Voice Coach’s Voice Coach” because of the depth and range of her knowledge and skills, Ariana is the creator of the Reclaim Your Authentic Voice™ and Voice Your Value™ programs.

She is a Harvard graduate, former professional opera singer, Certified Sacred Money Archetypes® coach, Certified Money, Marketing & Soul® Coach, and mom of 2. She has taught voice since 1995 and has been a Massage Therapist since 1984. She is a 2x graduate of the Estill Voice Training, a Certified Caring Economy Conversation Leader with the Caring Economy Campaign, and an internationally published best-selling author.

A voice injury ended her singing career, and her journey back to a healthy voice and into entrepreneurship inspired her unique and powerful approach to voice and business coaching. Ariana’s lifelong personal growth journey informs her work, along with her rich performing, teaching and therapeutic background.
